Evening DANCE

Monthly Evening Dance
Hosted on the Last Thursday.
(See Details on Page 9)

I scream, you scream, we all scream for ice cream!

Since we're in the midst of the "Dog Days of Summer", we felt the perfect event for celebrating a hot summer afternoon with friends should feature everyone's favorite frozen dessert — ice cream. So we're hosting a good, old-fashioned Ice Cream Social on Tuesday, August 15 at noon.

Lunch will feature chicken salad sandwiches, pasta salad and chips. But the highlight will definitely be the sweet treats from our ice cream bar for dessert. You can top off your delicious Riverside Homemade Ice Cream with caramel syrup, chocolate syrup, strawberry sauce, sprinkles, chopped nuts, and whipped cream!

Following lunch we'll be entertained by 2012 Banjo Hall of Fame inductee Glenn Parks. Glenn will perform many classic banjo tunes, along with telling a few stories and jokes. His strolling banjo entertainment is guaranteed to brighten your day!

Tickets will be available at the Center through Friday, August 11. Cost is $7 for Members/ $10 Non-Members, which include lunch, ice cream bar and entertainment.

Volunteer of the Month

MEET RANDY MOORE

By Laura Ustaszewski

Randy Moore has enjoyed his time as maintenance supervisor at the Marion Senior Center, but there are just some things he wants to do before it's too late.

"Working four plus hours a day doesn't give you time to do much else," he said on June 27th, his 67th birthday. "And there are things I want to do before I'm too old."

Randy has worked at the Marion Senior Center for a little over eight years now. He has worked 8 a.m. to noon, and sometimes beyond that, working to maintain the cleanliness of the facility, making repairs, maintaining some of the landscaping and just generally keeping an eye on things.

"Cleanliness is number one to me, everyone likes a pleasant environment," He said. "I also shovel snow, but I won't miss that!"

Randy has also put his woodworking skills to use during the last eight years, making a "cash machine" for the center as well as card holders to make it easier for members to hold a large number of cards, and he has also made and donated cutting boards to different events.

Randy found his way to the center just about a month after he retired from Honda. "I retired March 30 and got this one April 30," he said, adding that he heard about the opening at the senior center as he was getting ready to leave Honda and he decided to apply.

Originally from south of Richwood, Randy grew up on his parent's farm there and learned all the knowledge and skills that have made him so successful while working on the farm. "It helped a lot in my life and career," he said.

His career has spanned a stint in the U.S. Navy, 13 years at BF Goodrich and 23 years at Honda. During that time, he also met and married his wife of 44 years, Janie. They have one daughter.

Now that he's retiring, Randy has a lot of plans to keep himself every bit as busy as he's been at the senior center, however.

"I've got a lot to do," he said, adding woodworking projects to the list, as well as golf, travel, and helping out his daughter's family with little repairs to the list. "We have two grandsons who keep us busy. One was six at the end of June and the other is 16 months."

"It's been enjoyable, I've met a lot of good people," he said of his time at the center, adding that he won't be a stranger. "I will come back in for evening activities, to help set up and tear down. And I'll be back to help with special events, or if they need help with the garden or need something made."
